

Upcoming Community Read Event

This year, we invite you to read Paradise Under Glass: The Education of an Indoor Gardener by Ruth Kassinger. For young readers, we've selected The Extraordinary Gardener by Sam Boughton.

In celebration of the opening of Longwood Reimagined, including our new West Conservatory, we selected two books that explore the powerful impact gardening can have in our lives.

The 2025 Community Read is organized by Longwood Gardens and many community partners, including public libraries, museums, gardens and conservation organizations.
